

We're asking you to lend a hand....

The Butterfly Boutique is a new resale shop in Tucson supporting Teen Challenge's Springboard Home for Youth in Crisis. The shop is located in the Michaels/Bookman's plaza on the corner of Thornydale and Ina Roads.

The Butterfly Boutique relies on volunteers to keep the shop running and filled with donated ladies fashions and jewelry. That's why we're asking you to share a few hours each week, or whenever you can, to help staff the shop. All you need is a friendly smile... no retail experience or high-tech knowledge required. We're flexible about letting you choose your times and we pair you with an experienced person. The duties are pleasant...you simply meet and greet our customers and/or sort clothes.

We're also asking you to consider cleaning your closet and bringing your gently used items to the shop for resale... with 100% of the proceeds to Springboard Home for Youth in Crisis, a part of Teen Challenge here in Tucson. You'll get more closet space... and a donor receipt from us for your tax deduction.

To lend a hand... or a dress... call us at 572-6301... 10am to 5pm Mon-Sat... or just stop by. Our address is 3725 W. Ina Road (next to the Panda House Restaurant).
